

2nd Annual Event PENNSYLVANIA BIG WOODS SPORTSMAN SPECTACULAR

CLINTON COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS
MACKEYVILLE, PA

SEPTEMBER 6, 2014

OUTDOOR RECREATION

pennsylvania WILDS™

Steep mountains and deep canyons- sycamores reaching from stream bottoms, secluded wooded valleys and ice cold streams characterize Clinton County in north-central Pennsylvania. Each year thousands of sportsmen hunters, hikers, fishermen, backpackers and other outdoor enthusiasts visit Clinton County in the Pennsylvania Wilds. Hunting is a major part of the Clinton County's outdoor recreation legacy. Generations of families have made our forests their destination for hunting. Whether the object of the hunt was a trophy buck, black bear, or the elusive turkey, life-long hunting memories began here.

Involvement has been growing throughout the region in outdoor recreational activities such as backpacking, biking, canoeing, hiking, kayaking, and trail races, as well as seasonal watercraft sports, snow sports, and horseback riding. If you are interested in showcasing what your company or organization has to offer to all of the area's outdoor enthusiasts, then our show & expo is the perfect place for you to exhibit and network.
